

The lake accesses have been private land since the 1950s and their use require membership in our association.

Only houses built on land that was formerly owned by Blue Hills Company are eligible to become members, and only if they have access to the lakes written into their deeds.